

DigiGov Virtual Winter School:

Taming the iMonster: Regulating digital platforms

Timetable:      Slot 1:            3.00-4.20pm CET
                          Coffee break:    4.20-4.40pm CET
                          Slot 2:            4.40-6.00pm CET

	Topic of the Day	Slot 1	Slot 2
Day 1, 14.2.22	Is there anything one can expect from platform regulation?	Formal opening Welcome address Prof. Nikolaus Forgó	Moderated Discussion
Day 2, 15.2.22	Group and project introductions	Both Slots: interactive, all participants
Day 3, 16.2.22	What is the role of “the state” in regulating the organisation and the conduct of platforms?	Dr Susanne Lackner	Prof Gerda Falkner
Day 4, 17.2.22	Research in and against Corporate Platforms: Strategies for Accountability in Big Tech	Preparatory Session	Dr Alex Hanna
Day 5, 18.2.22	Shaping social life: platforms between public values and private interest	Dr Heta Tarkkala;	Breakout rooms and moderated discussion in the plenary
Day 6, 21.2.22	The European Vision of Fair & Trustworthy AI – How can we put legal theory into practice?	Prof Sandra Wachter	Theresa Henne, BA LL.M.
Day 7, 22.2.22	The role, relationship and potential of soft and hard law in governing platforms	Prof Matthias Kettemann	Seliem El-Sayed, BA MA Mag Filip Paspalj
Day 8, 23.2.22	Polycentric governance of digital platforms: Developing an analytical approach	Paul Dunshirn, BA MSc	Practical Work
Day 9, 24.2.22	Data flows and data divides: building information infrastructures in European healthcare	Prof Klaus Høyer	Public Round Table: Open Interest Research
Day 10, 25.2.22	Lessons learned: Revisiting participants’ projects	Both Slots: interactive, all participants	